About the Project:

Oraiyan Samruddhi Garden is a lavish residential project located in Nelmangala, Bangalore, spanning 4 acres of land. It has all essential amenities like well-maintained roads, parks, underground sewage and drainage systems, streetlights, and water supply. The developers have beautifully landscaped the surroundings with lush greenery. It offers a tranquil environment, away from the hustle and bustle of the city, but still well-connected to major areas of Bangalore through the Bangalore Tumkur highway, making it an excellent choice for a peaceful yet convenient lifestyle.
